

PRESS RELEASE

PSA Southern Leyte Successfully Completes Audit of All 19 Local Civil Registry Offices

Date of Release: 25 February 2025

Reference No.: PR202502-0864-11

The audit of Local Civil Registry Offices (LCROs) is a crucial process conducted by the Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA) to ensure proper maintenance and safeguarding of civil registry documents, assess compliance with laws, policies, and procedures, and identify areas for improvement in civil registration operations. In line with this, PSA Southern Leyte has successfully completed the audit of all 19 LCROs in Southern Leyte.

This initiative was spearheaded by Chief Statistical Specialist (CSS) Eutemio A. Llevado Jr., pursuant to Republic Act (RA) No. 10625, which grants the National Statistician and Civil Registrar General (NSCRG) the authority to conduct inspections and field visits.

As part of this process, PSA Southern Leyte conducted random checks and field visits to evaluate the efficiency and accuracy of civil registry operations. The findings of this audit will help reinforce best practices, enhance data integrity, and improve public service delivery in civil registration across the province.

PSA Southern Leyte is grateful to all Local Civil Registrars for their full cooperation and for warmly welcoming PSA personnel into their offices. Their compliance and openness greatly contributed to the success of this audit and will help improve civil registration services for the public.
